

You have read, understood and agree to abide by these terms and conditions.

- 1) To receive your final qualification students must attend every training day of the course. In certain or exceptional circumstances and by prior arrangement, it may be possible to arrange for a missed day to be made up, at the discretion of the tutor.
- 2) If the training dates have been missed or coursework not completed students may be asked to repeat the relevant parts of the course.
- 3) A course place is only secured on the acceptance of a completed application form and receipt of a non-refundable deposit. (If, for any reason, a student is not accepted the deposit is, of course refunded.) We advise students to take out independent cancellation insurance to protect against loss in the event of illness, injury, jury service and other difficulties preventing the completion of a course. (Details of one such company are given at the top of this page.)
- 4) Course fees are to be paid in full two weeks prior to the course start date or by instalments by either post-dated cheques or by standing order (a £25 admin fee is charged for this service). Should a student decide to leave this course no fee will be refunded. Instalments will continue until full course fees have been paid.
- 5) Students are responsible for their own well-being and must inform the teacher of any matters affecting their health for the duration of the course.
- 6) The course tutor reserves the right to ask a student to leave the course.
- 7) All students shall respect the other course participants irrespective of race, colour, creed or sex and will endeavour to respect any values that may be different from their own.
- 8) Confidentiality provides privacy and safety within the group. Whilst there is no automatic presumption that all information given is confidential, students must work within the guideline that all personal information about group members is confidential.
- 9) Should difficulties arise with another member of the group, students must call upon the group, the tutor, or the Isle of Avalon Foundation for mediation and resolution.
- 10) It may be a requirement of your training that you receive counselling/therapy sessions.

DISCLAIMER

The Isle of Avalon Foundation enforces all known safety methods that are seen to be correct in the light of current understanding of your course subject. The Isle of Avalon Foundation or any tutor are not, and will not, be held liable for any assumed damage that is deemed to occur at any time. Students must accept that all knowledge is given in good faith. Students must understand that they are entering into training in a pioneer field and all such training is given in good faith to the highest known safety standards of known or perceived practices within this discipline. If required, students must undertake their own individual practice insurance.

I confirm that I have read, understood and agree to abide by the Isle of Avalon Foundation course booking terms, conditions and disclaimer and that the above information I have given is true and correct. I hereby state that I, or any persons acting on my behalf, will not hold or claim against the Isle of Avalon Foundation, or any of its tutors or estates for any damages assumed or otherwise for any conditions, be it emotional, mental, spiritual, physical or financial relating to my training at the Isle of Avalon Foundation.
